BLAIR BELL RESEARCH SOCIETY SYMPOSIUM

A Symposium on Myometrial Contractility and its Regulation

Held at the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists, London, on 16 May 1968

Editors

BRENDA M. SCHOFIELD
Ph.D., D.Sc.

PROFESSOR A. C. TURNBULL
M.D., F.R.C.O.G.

The luteo-placental shift, the guardian of pre-natal life

ARPAD CSAPO

Evidence of a foetal role in determining the length of gestation

A. C. TURNBULL and ANNE B. M. ANDERSON

The importance of progesterone in the maintenance of pregnancy in the sheep

BRENDA M. SCHOFIELD

Studies in the regulation of uterine activity

D. G. PORTER

Experiments on the control of myometrial activity in the non-pregnant woman

LARS PHILIP BENGTTSSON

The effect of an intra-uterine device on uterine motility in women and rhesus monkeys

J. H. MARSTON, W. A. KELLY
and P. ECKSTEIN

The distribution of cholinergic and other nerve fibres in the human uterus

R. E. COUPLAND

The Editors and the Council of the Fellowship of Postgraduate Medicine gratefully acknowledge the assistance of Sandoz Products Limited in the organization and publication of this Symposium