A NEW JOURNAL FROM MACMILLAN PRESS

Pharmaceutical Medicine

Editor Dr R. N. Smith

Assistant Editor P. J. Keen

... "a quarterly journal, which includes papers on the validation of new and established methods of testing drugs in man written by investigators both inside and outside the pharmaceutical industry. It also provides a forum for the exchange of ideas about issues affecting drug development. These new developments merit support from all involved in the management, sale and use of drugs." Lancet
