Health Care Analysis is an international forum for communication and debate on the philosophical and policy issues relevant to the practice and delivery of health care. Designed for all with a professional or personal interest in health - including doctors, health researchers, nurses, managers, sociologists, economists, lawyers, and educationalists - Its purpose is to..

- ◆ Analyse health care and health services from multiple perspectives
- ◆ Promote constructive dialogue between all groups engaged in health work regardless of academic discipline
- ◆ Provide conceptual clarification of prevailing theories in health care, and to investigate their effects on policy and practice
